CHILI IS SILENT.

Nothing Heard of Reparation at the State Department.

CLAIMS NOT YET PRESENTED.

A Talk With One of the Officials of the State Department on the Subject—The Amount of Damages Will Probably Be Fixed by Arbitration.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The telegram from San Francisco to the effect that the claims for damages against Chili by the sailors on the cruiser Baltimore injured in the Valparaíso riot of Oct. 16 last would amount to $1,395,000 in addition to the claims made on behalf of the relatives of Riggin and Turnbull, the sailors who were killed in the affray, has led to some misapprehension respecting the method of presenting such claims for collection. Some days ago in these dispatches the modus operandi of presenting and collecting ordinary international claims was set forth at some length.

As to these particular claims, an official of the state department said: "The fact that the dead and injured persons, or their representatives, have presented or will present claims to this department against Chili will not influence the action of the department. Whether or not any such claims were filed, we should keep that matter of reparation to the sufferers by the assault to attend to in the settlement of the affair. The matter will be taken up in due time, and if we can not agree upon the amount to be paid it will be fixed by arbitration. But nothing will be done for some time yet. We shall wait for Chili to fulfill her implied promise, in the answer of Senor Pereira to Secretary Blaine's note of Jan. 21, which dissipated the lowering clouds of war and made a definite offer of reparation."

"The amount for the individual cases presented to the department is no indication that any such will be asked. As has been stated these claims are like the ordinary individual claim against a foreign country for damages sent to the state department (and even those are subject to official revision); they are claims of this government against Chili and the amount to be demanded will be determined by the officials in charge of the matter. In the case of the Virginian some years ago, the United States demanded and received of Spain a lump sum in damages, and distributed it among the claimants as was deemed proper in this department. No one need be unduly exercised over the amount of damages set up in the claims of individuals as was stated in the San Francisco dispatch."

As a matter of interest it may be stated that no communication of importance has been received from Chili at the state department since Minister Egan was notified that Senor Pereira's reply of Jan. 26, to Secretary Blaine's note of Jan. 21, was satisfactory to the United States.

THE ICE GORGE REMAINS.

Great Destruction Feared All Along the Allegheny River.

PARKER, Pa., Feb. 17.—The immense gorge of ice which is holding back the waters of the Allegheny river from Brady's Bend to Franklin, is hourly becoming more formidable. The lower portion of this city is now in danger, as well as are all low lands between the points named. The river raised five feet yesterday, and now measures twenty feet in depth; the huge blocks of ice reaching almost to the floor of the iron bridge which spans the river.

Business men are removing their goods to places of safety, and nearly every residence on the "flat" has been vacated. Two feet more of a rise will cover the main thoroughfare of the city and there is no indication that a break in the gorge will occur in time to prevent the destruction of much valuable property. The weather is clear and cold and the river is rising slowly.

The mayor of Parker has telegraphed to the government officials in Pittsburgh in regard to opening the gorge if possible at Brady's, in hopes of saving this place from the threatened danger. The present gorge is the worst this town has ever experienced.

The Dynamite Shipped.

PITTSBURGH, Feb. 17.—A large quantity of nitro-glycerine has been shipped and it will be distributed at various points along the river from Parker to Brady's Bend to break up the ice pack. Nine years ago Parker was inundated by a gorge and several houses carried down the river.

PROTECTION FOR MINERS.

The President Sends a Message to Congress on the Subject.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The following message was transmitted to congress yesterday by the president:

There was passed by the last congress an act for the protection of the lives of miners, which was approved by me on the 2d day of March, 1891. That no appropriation was made to carry the act into effect resulted, I suppose, from the fact that it was passed so late in the season. This law recognizes the necessity of a responsible public inspection and supervision of the business of mining in the interest of the miners, and is in line with the legislation of most states. The work of a miner has its unavoidable incidents of discomfort and danger, and these should not be increased by the neglect of the owners to provide every practicable safety appliance. Economies which involve sacrifice of human life are intolerable.

I transmit herewith memorials from several hundred miners working in the Indian territory asking for the appointment of an inspector under the act.

ferred to. The recent frightful disaster at Krebs, in that territory, in which sixty-seven miners met a horrible death, gives urgency to this appeal, and I recommend that a special appropriation be at once made for the salaries and necessary expenses of inspectors provided for in the law.

BEER POOL IN PROSPECT.

A Call Issued for an Interstate Brewery Meeting.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—The Anheuser-Busch Brewing company, of St. Louis, the Cincinnati breweries and the Indianapolis Brewing company have issued a call for an interstate brewery meeting at a place yet to be designated. The breweries named form the nucleus of a beer pool to restore ante-bellum prices.

Interstate war beer has been sold at $3 per barrel that cost $5 to manufacture, when the price should have been $7. This latter figure is to control the proposed pool. All the Indiana breweries are in with the new deal, also all of the Cincinnati breweries and the Anheuser-Busch company. It is expected to include the Pabst and Schlitz breweries of Milwaukee and breweries at Chicago, Columbus, Dayton and elsewhere in the pool.

Claims They Are Not in It.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—President Busch, of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company, denies the truth of the Indianapolis dispatch about his connection with a beer pool. He says he is not in any combination and is independent of any pool. He sells his beer for $9 per barrel, and, as it sells on its merits, there would be nothing in a pool for his brewery.

THE GLENDALE TRAIN ROBBERS.

One of Them Pleads Guilty and the Other Granted a Change of Venue.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 17.—John I. Martin, in behalf of Adelbert D. Slye, the Glendale train robber, entered court yesterday at Clayton, St. Louis county, and pleaded guilty of robbing the Adams express company of some $20,000 on Nov. 30 last. Judge Edwards presided, and deferred sentence until the trial of Hespeth and wife, alleged accomplices of Slye, when sentence will be pronounced upon all three.

Marion Hespeth, leader of the Glendale train robber gang, arrived yesterday morning accompanied by Detectives Bryan and Whittaker, of San Francisco. The prisoner was heavily manacled, and the detectives carried short guns and a brace of revolvers, as though they expected an attempt at rescue on the way. Hespeth was at once taken to jail where he met his wife. The meeting of Hespeth and his wife was extremely affecting. Hespeth was arraigned in the afternoon, and his attorney asked a change of venue to the county court at Clayton, which was granted. The detectives say Hespeth gave them no trouble on the journey.

INVESTIGATION ASKED.

Serious Charges Against the Management of the Athens Insane Asylum.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 17.—The daily papers of Tuesday morning contained a startling statement of alleged cruelty to Mrs. Phillips, an aged and highly respectable lady of Jackson county, while she was an inmate of the insane asylum at Athens. The alleged cruelty was discovered by an unexpected visit of a daughter to the institution. In view of the charge Governor McKinley sent the following letter to the members of the state board of charities:

"I would direct your attention to the publication in the press today, reciting the case of alleged cruelty and treatment of a patient in the insane asylum at Athens. The case is one demanding speedy and thorough investigation and I urgently request that you look into the matter and make a report in writing to me. No charges have been filed with me against the management of the institution and I do not know anything about the alleged cruelty and mistreatment beyond what I see in the papers."

NATIONAL EDUCATORS.

They Meet in Annual Session in Brooklyn, New York.

BROOKLYN, Feb. 17.—The department of superintendents of the National Educational association begins its annual meeting at the rooms of the Brooklyn Art Association in this city at 6 o'clock yesterday. The meeting will continue for three days.

The department was called to order by the president, Professor Henry Sabin, of Des Moines, who introduced Rev. R. S. Storrs, of Brooklyn, to deliver the invocation. Mayor Boddy then made a brief address, followed by President Hendricks, of the board of education, of Brooklyn, who also made a welcoming address. President Sabin responded.

The regular proceedings of the meeting were opened by Professor Henry Raab, state superintendent of education, of Springfield, Ill., who read a paper on "The Rural School Problem." A general discussion on the subject followed in which a number of members took part.

They Will Be Quarantined.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—The state board of health yesterday received notice from the immigration bureau of New York that four Russians, who came over in the ship Massilia, have started for Fort Wayne, this state. The steerage passengers were afflicted with a virulent type of typhus fever which has proved very contagious. Upon receipt of the notice the local health officer at Fort Wayne, Dr. T. J. Dills, was notified and ordered to quarantine the immigrants.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 17.—Two more jurors were secured in the Ellicott murder trial yesterday, making four now in the box. The defense exhausted two more of its sixteen peremptory challenges, and has only nine remaining.

for the Starving Peasants in Russia.

50 SAYS OUR MINISTER THERE.

All Contributions Will Be Thankfully Received and Properly Distributed. The First Ship Load of Grain Will Start from Philadelphia Next Saturday.

BALTIMORE, Feb. 17.—The News, which announced its intention yesterday of subscribing $1,000 for the relief of the Russian famine sufferers, received the following cablegram last night in response to one sent to United States Minister Smith, at St. Petersburg, stating that a fund had been started in Baltimore with $1,000 contributed by The News as a nest egg:

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 16, 1892. To the Baltimore Daily News.

Thanks heartily. I commend your movement and your liberal gift. It is timely and helpful. Offers of assistance from America are welcome and appreciated here. The distress has increased rather than diminished. Continue your good work. CHARLES EMORY SMITH.

First Relief Will Start Saturday.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—There has been a decided increase the last few days to the contributions in this city to the fund in aid of the starving Russians. Drexel & Company, treasurers of the fund, yesterday received $7,663, making the total to date $30,798. The citizens' Russian famine committee held another meeting yesterday and reported favorable progress in the arrangements for the departure of the steamship "Indiana" for Liban, Russia, on Saturday next with a cargo of flour and provisions for the sufferers.

GETS A NEW TRIAL.

Celebrated Murder Case Reversed by a Supreme Court Decision.

ELKHART, Ind., Feb. 17.—Frank T. Hendryx, who was convicted of murdering Edward Calkins by drowning, and who received a new trial by a decision of the supreme court reversing the case, has been returned to this county for trial, after a stay of nearly one year in the northern prison at Michigan City. In the spring of 1890 Frank Hendryx, who was then in the insurance business here, had Mr. Calkins soliciting for him. Calkins married a Mrs. Collins, and took out a life insurance policy in favor of her. Early in May, Calkins, his wife and Hendryx went for a row on the river, and later in the day Mrs. Calkins and Hendryx returned with the story that the boat had capsized and Calkins was drowned. The river was dragged and the body recovered the same day.

Later it was learned that Hendryx had previously had Calkins' insurance transferred to him, and suspicion was aroused, but after a thorough investigation there was no evidence enough to convict them. The matter apparently dropped. Hendryx went to Chicago and Mrs. Calkins to Michigan, but all the time Prosecutor State and Sheriff Crull were on the lookout. In the fall the sheriff went to see Mrs. Calkins, and when he confronted her with the crime, she confessed that she and Hendryx had gotten Calkins drunk and then pushed him from the boat, after which they went to the shore and waded in the water so as to make it appear that they had been upset; then they went to town with the story as told. Hendryx was at once arrested in Chicago, and, after an exciting trial here, was convicted of murder in the first degree and was sentenced to imprisonment for life.

The case was reversed because of an error of the judge in refusing to appoint counsel to defend, because he believed the parents able to and would employ an attorney. Hendryx is twenty-six years old and is married. His wife is now in Chicago, where Dr. Hendryx, the father of Frank, resides. The new trial will be had in March.

Epidemic of La Grippe.

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind., Feb. 17.—The prevalence of grip among children has become so alarming that the disease is verging upon an epidemic. Taking as a basis that there are between 3,000 and 4,000 children in the city, physicians say that fully one-half of this number are more or less afflicted. Running at the nose, constant coughing, indications of croup and aching of the entire system appear to affect them most. The disease has hold of nursing infants as well as those older in years. No deaths, however, are reported, but the percentage of non-attendance at school is very large. In connection with this malady chicken-pox, a violent fever, measles and mumps have full sway among this class.

Officer Shot by a Negro Gambler.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 17.—An Arcadia (Fla.) special says Deputy Sheriff Bert Hard on Saturday evening made a raid on a gang of negro gamblers, and while attempting to arrest them a big burly negro named Walter Austin emptied the contents of a Winchester rifle into the officer's body, killing him instantly. The negro escaped, but was captured Sunday night and lynched. Hard was highly esteemed by all who knew him. His remains were sent to Wadsworth, O., for interment.

Diphtheria Again Breaking Out.

FRANKLIN, Ind., Feb. 17.—Diphtheria has been under control for the past two weeks, but is again getting a foothold here. There are several old cases, and three new ones were reported to the health officers yesterday. The malady also prevails throughout the county, twenty cases being reported from the western part of Pleasant township. The twelve-year-old son of B. Tracy, of Whiteland, is dead of diphtheria.

MEXICAN REVOLT.

Bloody Battle Between Federalists and Revolutionists.

EL PASO, Tex., Feb. 17.—A mining man, well known on this frontier, has just returned from the mountainous regions of Chihuahua and reports that country in a very unsettled and confused condition. He says the revolutionary movement is backed by the lower class to a man, and they are gathering in numbers gradually and becoming stronger in arms daily.

They have, in several instances, already rebelled against the government, and won a victory or two against the federal troops. At Temochi recently a demonstration occurred and the government sent on a detachment of troops to capture the leaders and disarm the people. When the troops arrived a bloody battle ensued, during which twenty regulars and nine rebels were killed and many wounded on either side. The troops finally succeeded in capturing the town.

Following closely upon this another battle was fought at Los Almos, in which the revolutionists came out victorious, and without the loss of a man. Eight federal soldiers and the commandant were killed. The news of this victory spread rapidly, and encouraged others to join the movement.

A few days later the Federalists and the revolutionists had a skirmish at Yeckery, in which three of the latter were killed and a number captured. The loss to the government troops is not known.

The movement is urged on by the priests, who hope to overthrow the present government and resurrect the constitutions of 1823.

BENZINE EXPLOSION.

Two Men Killed and One Other Seriously Wounded.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—An explosion that resulted in the death of two men and the serious injury of one other, occurred at the Baldwin locomotive works yesterday afternoon. In the boiler shop Sylvester Horter, Daniel Jordan and Patrick Carney were working in the dome of one of the engines in course of construction tightening bolts, and were using benzine to ease them up. The quantity of benzine used was small, but the volume of gas generated was large, and when one of the three men lowered a lighted lamp into the dome an explosion followed.

Workmen rushed quickly to the scene, but when they arrived they found that Jordan was past all assistance. He was badly burned; he had inhaled the deadly flames. An ambulance was summoned, but before its arrival Jordan was dead. The other two men were taken to a hospital and Sylvester Horter died at 8 o'clock last night. All of the men are married.

THE DISEASE NOT SPREADING.

No Symptoms of Typhus Fever Existing in Philadelphia.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 17.—The search by the health officers for the passengers who came to this city after landing in New York from the fever infected steamship Massilia, was continued yesterday, and fourteen of them had been found. No case of illness was discovered among them, nor was there any symptoms of typhus fever found to exist.

Nearly all were found stopping with friends on Alaska street, or Mary street in the vicinity of Sixth street, commonly known as the Italian quarter. The premises upon which they were found were thoroughly disinfected, but as no symptoms of sickness were found the health authorities have taken no further action in the matter.

Verdict in the Institute Horror.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—Coroner Manker expected to return a finding in the surgical institute fire case yesterday, but the stenographers have been unable to get out all the testimony for him. The coroner has made up his mind as to what the verdict will be, and the return will be made as soon as he is furnished with all the testimony. The verdict, it is understood, will exonerate the institute management from the charge of not taking proper precautions in the way of providing apparatus for fighting fire, and from the charge that proper means of escape in case of fire was not provided. If there is any criticism at all, it will be of the employees who were on duty the night of the fire.

New Move in the Street Car War.

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 17.—The war of the labor leaders against President Fenzel, of the street railway company, began yesterday morning when a committee of organized labor leaders and street railway employees called to see the county commissioners prepared to protest against the granting of a franchise to the Citizens' Street Railway company over the streets north of the city in the direction of the state fair grounds. The commissioners were not present, and the committee left word that it wanted to be notified when the matter was to be taken up in order to attend and make protest.

Peculiar Manner of Suicide.

ROCKVILLE, Ind., Feb. 17.—John Perry, a miner of Rosedale committed suicide yesterday at Rockville by sticking his head in front of a slow-moving caboose. His neck was broken. Perry recently was adjudged insane, and was confined at the poor asylum, from which he escaped.

No Progress Made.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—A treasury officer is authority for the statement that the agents considering Behring sea seal matters have made but little progress, and from present indications their labors will not result in an agreement as to facts to be submitted to arbitration. The agents held a meeting yesterday at which Secretary Blaine and Sir Julian Pauncefote, the British minister, were present for a short time.

EVENING BULLETIN. DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY. ROSSER & MCARTHUR, Proprietors. WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 17, 1892.

"Honor to whom honor is due."
 Through Governor Brown's excellent management, it cost just a two-cent stamp to get a check from "Uncle Sam" for that $600,000 direct tax. Other States paid out several hundred dollars to collect their portion of the tax.

MAYSVILLE'S manufacturing enterprises as a rule are prosperous. They show what can be done here in that line of business. The largest and most successful was started on a small scale years since, and was built up gradually to its present dimensions. Other factories, started only a few years ago, have to be enlarged now to accommodate their increasing trade. All this should be sufficient encouragement to men who are thinking of investing in some profitable business. Where is there a city with more advantages than Mayesville?

Some heartless wretch once remarked: "All Mayesville needs to make it a wide-awake, prosperous city, is several first-class funerals." It would be better to substitute for the funerals several first-class conversions, for certainly the city would be much better off if some of its wealthy citizens were a little less conservative and a little more public-spirited and had a little more push. To those men who are doing all in their power to advance the best interests of the city let due credit be given, but these are not in the majority. Let those who have the means establish factories—a shoe factory is the BULLETIN'S hobby—but other kinds would do as well. Factories are necessary to our city's increase, growth and development.

Union Revival Services.
 The union revival services at the Third street M. E. Church are growing in interest. There was an increased attendance last night. Rev. G. R. Frenger, of Dayton, preached an earnest discourse. The prayers and sermon were fervent appeals for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit. Services this afternoon at 3 o'clock and this evening at 7:15. The public invited. All the pastors of the city and all church members are urged to join in the services.

Here and There.
 Mrs. Carrie Tudor, of Cincinnati arrived this morning to visit relatives.
 Mr. Walter A. Knight and wife, of Washington, are visiting the family of Mr. W. A. Steele, at Millwood.

A Pleasing Sense
 Of health and strength renewed and of ease and comfort follows the use of Syrup of Figs, as it acts in harmony with nature to effectually cleanse the system when costive or bilious. For sale in 50 cents and $1.00 bottles by all leading druggists.

Where Is Yazell?
 James Yazell, whose disappearance last Thursday was mentioned yesterday, has not been heard from yet. Several parties who know him think he has gone to his old home in Fleming County, and will turn up all right.

Late in the afternoon of the day he disappeared, he was seen in a quarrel with two young men under the C. and O. crossing at Bridge street. One of the parties was seen to strike him a heavy blow with a pair of shoes. Was he knocked on the head and dumped into the creek?

J. C. STEWART'S company, in the uproarious comedy of "The Two Johns," will be the attraction at the opera house to-morrow night. This comedy owes its success to the two characters, Peter and Philip Johns, cousins, who look as nearly alike as two peas in a pod, and are continually mistaken for each other by the other characters, thus giving rise to the most laughable scenes. The fun is of a clean and wholesome character and appeals to all who desire an evening of laughter and innocent enjoyment. The company is said to be the best ever seen in this favorite comedy, and includes a contingent of specialists who will introduce a repertory of the latest operatic gems and European dances. Tickets on sale at Nelson's.

Mayslick is the largest corn producing precinct in the county, the bushels grown last year amounting to 102,500. Mayesville No. 2 comes next with 81,940 bushels, and Washington next with 77,750 bushels. Mayslick is also the largest wheat producing precinct, the bushels reported for last year amounting to 51,000. Washington is second with 47,145, and Lewisburg third with 21,400. Mayesville No. 1 reports the smallest quantity of wheat and corn for last year.

It is reported that the C. and O. will shortly put on another local passenger train, to leave Cincinnati in the morning and return in the afternoon. It is also reported that the fast express will be vestibuled throughout.

Having determined to discontinue business, W. L. Thomas & Brother offer their entire stock of goods at greatly reduced prices. The stock is full and complete, consisting of heating and cook stoves, tinware, iron, stone and granite ware, china, glass and queensware, pottery goods, etc., etc. This is a rare chance to buy goods at low prices. Call early and pick out what you want. 25-4f

Mr. JACOB DOWNING, of this county, now well up in the nineties, is still a well-preserved, hearty man. He was engaged in traveling through the country selling books, &c., until a short time ago, and did not want to quit work when he did. He was postmaster at Washington so long ago that it almost makes one dizzy to think of it, says our Washington correspondent. He must have received his appointment from President Andrew Jackson.

OUR NEIGHBORS.

FERN LEAF.
 The leap year party given by Mr. and Mrs. M. Keaty at their beautiful home, "Pine Grove," was altogether the most elegant affair of the kind ever given at Fern Leaf. The event was in honor of their charming sister, Miss Minnie Sullivan, of Chicago. The spacious parlors were thrown open, and at 8 o'clock the many guests began to arrive. Miss Minnie received in a most becoming costume of heliotrope silk and natural flowers. Dancing was the order of the evening; the Ripley band furnishing the music. At 12:30 delightful refreshments were served, which all enjoyed. There were at least ninety invited guests, but the writer not remembering names will have to omit naming, only those from a distance: Misses Josie Coughlin and Margaret Copan, of Mayslick; James Fisher, of Flemingsburg; John Corbett and bride, of Washington. The "light fantastic" was tripped by the merry girls and boys until the wee sma' hours, when the guests took a most reluctant adieu of their charming hostess and turned homeward, thinking of the enjoyable evening they had spent.

MAYSICK.
 J. D. Burnaw and wife arrived here Friday to visit Mrs. Rebecca Clary.
 Mrs. Ross, of Ohio, is here visiting her sister and brother, Mrs. Mary Gila, nee Meisner.
 We had some more of the beautiful snow Thursday morning and a cold wave in the evening.
 The young folks are making up a class for Prof. Copp, of Louisville. This place needs more music and not so much drinking.
 M. P. Moody and family came in last Friday and he and his son will open a blacksmith shop in the old Clary stand this week.
 We had hard rains Saturday night and all day Sunday and Sunday night, but Monday morning opened out fine and was a lovely spring-like day.
 On Thursday night we had a big snow storm, and Friday morning was very cold and a very disagreeable day. Some more of the ground hog winter.
 The meeting at Christian Church closed Sunday night. One addition by letter. Good audiences and fine interest was manifested during the meetings.
 Mrs. Anna Wilson and Miss Mamie Scott left New Mexico on the 12th instant for California, where they will likely remain until the winter blasts are over.

SPRINGDALE.
 A. C. Hopkins left for Louisville Monday morning.
 Charles Hardiman went West the first of last week.
 Several fine beef cattle were shipped from here Monday.
 The institute held last week at Bethany Church was a grand success.
 Claude Jenkins, son of G. D. Jenkins, is very low with typhoid fever.

Miss Edith Holton, of Sand Hill, came down last week and enjoyed the institute.
 Ellsworth, Holman, of Poplar Flat, went to Cincinnati Monday to lay in a stock of goods.
 Elder W. H. Hull, of Ashland, came down on the C. and O. Monday to visit friends near Rectortville.
 W. J. Tully, our postmaster, has been sick with gripe nearly all winter, but is better at this writing.
 Mrs. Rosa O'Brien, of Dover, who has been visiting here for the past few weeks, returned home Saturday.

St. Valentine's day was pretty well observed here. Quite a number of our over-sensitive people are mad.
 Miss Jessie Kerr, of Jersey Ridge, was visiting Miss Ida Brooke last week, and also taking in the S. S. Institute.
 Miss Callie George, daughter of Prof. George of Lewis County, spent a few days with the family of T. P. Degman last week.
 Dogs are making sad havoc among the sheep in this neighborhood, and yet every poor man must have a dog, and if very poor must have two or three.

Uncle Jim West, an ex-Confederate soldier, aged seventy-nine years, is very low with fever at his home on Hook's Branch, and is almost destitute of the necessities of life.
 Tobacco is about all stripped, and there is some prizing going on in the neighborhood. It now looks like the middle men were losing their grip, as the farmer is getting better prices in the city than he is offered at home.

RECTORTVILLE.
 Dan Duzan will soon start a shoe shop here.
 M. P. Moody moved to Mayslick last Thursday.
 Bob Barnett moved down to Owl Hollow last week.
 W. S. Prather is ready to commence prizing tobacco.

Peter Fouts moved to the Nelson Cooper place last week.
 J. D. Stubblefield has sold his land to Frank Goodwin.
 Thomas Glascock has moved to the A. R. Glascock property.
 Wils Morton and Miss Robinson (of color) were married last week.
 Our town will get a move on itsometimes. One building going up now.
 Messrs. Duzan and Roe have started a steam grist mill at this place.

Our stockmen who attended county court at Mayslick report dull times.
 Robert Moody started for Lexington Monday, where he will attend college.
 Moses Barnett and Miss Nettie Broice eloped to Aberdeen one night last week.
 Miss Nannie Trisler spent a few days with friends at Cottageville last week.
 A. K. Mattingly and Miss Irene Rowland returned from Cottageville Sunday.
 Mrs. Joseph Trisler, of Mayesville, was visiting friends and relatives here last week.

The candy party given by Miss Ella Shown last week was well attended, and all had a good time.
 Gardner & Goodwin have bought a steam engine for the purpose of curing tobacco for prizing.
 Jake Dunaway has moved to Bridgeport and is dealing in hogs, poultry, dry goods and groceries.
 We have three tobacco firms in our little town now—Gardner & Goodwin, McIntyre & Hull and W. S. Prather.

The party given by Miss Julia Stubblefield last Saturday night was very much enjoyed by all who attended.
 Robert Cooper had a sale last Monday and moved to the property which he purchased of M. P. Moody, on Tuesday.

ABERDEEN.
 Dr. Guthrie is still improving.
 C. B. Sutton made a business trip to Vanceburg Monday and Tuesday.
 Dr. Stevenson and family were visiting out of town relatives last week.
 Wm. Miller is visiting the parents of his wife here—Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Ellis.
 Orla Edgington is now the mail carrier between this place and the C. and O. depot.
 Miss Maude Wilson has returned to Frankfort, after a pleasant visit to her parents here.
 S. P. Campbell, a competent and skillful pharmacist, has charge of Reynold's drug store.
 Mrs. Howard, an old and estimable lady who lives at a distance from town, is very low.
 Dr. Heaton attended the patients of Dr. Stevenson during the absence of the latter last week.
 You can find fresh meats at all times at the Second street meat shop. Goods delivered. Leave orders.
 Mrs. Geo. G. Atherton, who lives four or five miles in the country, is slowly recovering from a spell of sickness.
 O. B. Spears, tobacco merchant, was in Cincinnati last week, selling some of the old crop which is very low at the present time.

Tobacco is moving very slow in this vicinity, there being no weather for stripping. Fifteen cents per hundred packs it at the Enterprise.
 The "Squire" is getting old and feeble and hereby extend our warmest thanks to the gentlemen. May their voyage through life glide as even and sweet as their music.
 "Squire" Massie Beasley, the veteran matrimonialist, has been confined to his home for some time. The "Squire" is getting old and feeble and in the last few months has lost that wonderful electricity of youth for which he was noted.
 The event of the season was the marriage of Mr. John Brookover and Miss Anna Sutton, daughter of M. Sutton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. David Clark at the home of the bride on Front street, at 12 o'clock Tuesday. The young couple are well and favorably known, having many friends who wish them a long and happy life.

"A HOWLING MOB."

A Republican Convention at Lexington as Described by the Transcript.

Pandemonium Prevailed—The Denny and Stoll Factions Fight for Supremacy.

A Republican meeting was held at Lexington Monday night to select delegates to the approaching district and State conventions, and from all that has been learned the liveliest Democratic meeting in this city in past years was a tame affair in comparison, and we've had some lively ones.

It was really a fight between the Harrison faction, led by Judge Denny, and the anti-administrationists led by R. P. Stoll. Even the Commercial Gazette's correspondent says that "chaos reigned" and "amid the wildest confusion" the Denny faction passed resolutions endorsing President Harrison's administration.

The Transcript describes it as follows: "R. P. Stoll called the meeting to order and asked E. R. Blaine to act as Secretary. Rev. Howard, pastor of the Pleasant Green Church, nominated Judge George Denny for Chairman and Leslie Combs nominated R. P. Stoll for the same position and then the devil was to pay. J. C. Jackson tried to orate for Stoll but the man next to him could not hear a word he said. The cry went up all over the house for Denny and Stoll. Every man in the house was on his feet and yelling for his favorite. Crowds rushed on the stage and the reporters' tables as well as the Secretary's table were over-turned, and men grabbed their hats and held on to their watches and pocket books. Judge Denny called for a division of the house and at the request of Mr. Stoll, Mr. Blaine tried to divide the vote by putting the Stoll men on one side and the Denny men on the other. This announcement turned the whole house into an indescribable pandemonium. Dante's Inferno cannot hold a light to such a scene. No one could tell where the devil was located or where the central aisle was located. The crowd surged to and fro and over two hundred men rushed to the stage. Mr. Blaine stood in the center of the footlights with both hands up, looking as serene as a camp meeting revivalist calling for mourners, while Judge Denny stood on his right, Mr. Stoll to his back and Rev. Mr. Howard stood on his left waving his hands to the left (the Denny side) and J. C. Jackson yelled to the boys to come over to the right side. Postmaster Howard who was on the stage crowded to the front with hat in hand and exclaimed: 'We have got the majority and we intend to hold on to it.' Rev. Mr. Howard took off his glasses and waived his left hand to the boys to fall in on the Denny side. Hiram Shaw, stood on a chair over on the Denny side of the stage and declared that Denny had two to Stoll's one. Finally Mr. Blaine decided that Mr. Stoll had the majority. His decision made Rome howl and after that, not a word could be understood from any one, not even the lion voice of Rev. Mr. Howard could be heard three feet from where he stood.

"Finally the Rev. Dr. Shackelford, who was near the stage, climbed over the piano and was lifted to the stage. He quieted things for a second by holding his hands up to the ceiling and calling on the convention to be quiet for a few seconds. He said the convention had evidently met to transact business, not as a howling mob, therefore he moved to adjourn. His motion to adjourn threw everything into confusion again and the old man was assisted to his position on the floor, where he was lost in the commotion. After Dr. Shackelford retired, Rev. Howard proceeded to read the proceedings of the meeting, but no one could understand a word he said. The reporters deserted the stage and took positions in front of the three speakers, Denny, Stoll and Howard, but they could only catch a few sentences and had to form a combination in order to get a correct report of the proceedings.

"An old colored man by the name of Scott Jones stepped down from the stage and edged his way to a Transcript reporter to tell him that he and two other men had lost their pistols. Jones stated that his pistol cost him $10 and George Johnson's pistol cost him $15. He did not know the name of the other man who lost a fine pistol. Jones stated to the reporter that the house was full of burglars.

"Some one raised the Indian war whoop and the lights went out. Some one struck a match on the stage and Judge Denny signed the proceedings as Chairman and Jack Sheehan signed as Secretary. The crowd started for the door and the lights were turned on in order to give the boys a chance to get out.

"There were about 1,500 people in the house and such another meeting was never held in the United States. It was generally conceded by unbiased lookers on, that Judge Denny had a majority on a square count of at least 250."

One faction instructed for George Denny, Jr., for delegate from the State at large, J. W. Ellis (colored), of Lexington, for district delegate, and W. A. Gaines (colored), of Covington, for delegate-at-large to the Minneapolis convention. A new county committee was then formed of which George Denny, Jr., is Chairman. The Stoll meeting instructed for Jordan Jackson, (colored,) of Lexington, for delegate from the State-at-large; Leslie Combs of Lexington, and Lew P. Tarlton, of Frankfort, district delegates.

DEPUTY COUNTY CLERK JOHN C. LOVELL left this morning for Frankfort on business. On his return this evening he will stop at Lexington and attend the K. of P. celebration.

FRANK PYLES' barn near Sardis was destroyed by fire about 8 o'clock last night, together with the contents, consisting of several thousand pounds of tobacco. The amount of the loss has not been ascertained, but it will reach $1,000 or $1,500.

THE evangelist Mills, who is conducting the great meetings at Cincinnati, is a cousin of Mrs. Mary McAbooy, whose husband preached at Washington and Murphysville, this county, some years ago and was killed in the mill at the latter place.

JUDGE HENRY OSCAR BEATTY, who was born at Washington, this county, died February 14, at his home in Sacramento, Cal. He was the father of Chief Justice Beatty, of California. He himself at one time was Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Nevada.

MAJOR STANTON'S lecture, "The Nature and Structure of Poetry," is regarded as one of the finest productions ever placed on the lecture stage. At the court house Friday night, February 19th. Admission 50 cents. Tickets on sale at H. C. Barkley's and Power & Reynold's.

It is claimed that Mrs. Eva Cross, who died in Adams County last Saturday, was born March 2, 1787. About a month ago she walked a distance of three miles to visit the village store, and frequently walked or rode horse back that distance, and often more. Until death she retained all her faculties.

At the ball given in Washington City in honor of Senator Sherman's re-election, three colored couples entered the waltz in which the elite of the Ohio delegation were participating. In a surprisingly short time the whites had vacated the room and left the colored folks in possession.—Exchange.

ITALY AND THE FAIR

Will That Country Be Represented at Chicago?

IT HAS NOT YET BEEN DECIDED.

The American Delegates Now in Rome and Are Meeting With Abundant Success Among the People, but the Government Has Taken No Official Action. Other Foreign News.

ROME, Feb. 17.—Despite a very active hospitality in Italy, on political grounds, to the world's Columbian exposition, the presence here of the American delegates who came to solicit the official adherence of Italy to the fair and to stimulate both public and private desire to be represented at Chicago in 1893 has had some favorable results. The first to show interest in the exhibition have been the artists, who have held a general meeting at which was present a representative gathering of Roman artists.

A committee composed of well known artists and sculptors was appointed to organize an Italian art exhibit; but, since its formation two of its members, Senators Monteverde and Deputy Ferrarini, both of whom are sculptors, have withdrawn owing to the political difficulties between Italy and the United States. It is felt, however, that the action of these gentlemen is due more to their official position and to the fact that the government has not yet given its formal adherence to the scheme than to any real abuse, and that their action will not in any way hamper the operations of the artists' committee.

With the Roman chamber of commerce the American delegates have had more success. They have succeeded in gaining the interest of the chamber and Signor Toulougo, general governor of Banco Romane, and president of the Roman chamber of commerce, has promised to put himself at the head of the Italian chambers of commerce, of which there are sixty-nine (one in each province), and he will do all in his power to stimulate the interest of all commercial classes in the exposition.

The Roman chamber of commerce will subscribe a sum of money in order to constitute a general fund, which will be open to all the chambers in the country to add to.

In a less prepared state, yet slowly forming, is a national committee in Rome with the object of promoting national interest in the fair.

Several members of the chamber of deputies have signified their willingness to serve on the committee and as soon as the list is complete it will be published. Among those who have consented are Signor Brein, formerly minister of marine, the celebrated naval engineer from whose plans the Duclio and Dandolo were built. Ruspoli, of the well known Roman family, and Signor Ferraris will also serve.

Before taking any formal step this committee will sound the government and seek to learn in an informal way how the ministry are inclined to view any action on its part towards the support of the fair.

So far as is known at present in political circles the Marquis di Rudini, premier and minister of foreign affairs, has declared that he could not pledge the government to give any official support to the movement as long as the diplomatic relations between Italy and the United States had not returned to their normal state.

He added that every one was aware of his earnest work to bring about an arrangement with the United States, which, he said, should be both dignified and satisfactory to both countries. At the same time, the premier continued, he could only view with real sympathy any official movement among the Italian chamber of commerce and leading politicians, as well as manufacturers, to promote the representation of Italy at Chicago.

Marquis di Rudini also said that this movement would show to the people of the United States that the national feeling in Italy was friendly and cordial towards them, and he expressed the hope that it would pave the way to the speedy arrangement of political difficulties, a result which he earnestly desired. These declarations of the Marquis di Rudini have produced a good impression and give something of an impetus to the efforts of the American commissioners.

Triumph for the Bavarians.

BERLIN, Feb. 17.—Considerable sensation has been caused in military circles by Chancellor Von Caprivi's concession that the Bavarian system of military trials, which brings upon the offender the weight of public knowledge and opinion, has a better effect than the secret Prussian method. The kaiser has lately been trying to harmonize the Bavarian system with that of the rest of the empire, to which the Bavarians objected, and the admission that their code is superior in one respect at least is an admission which, under the circumstances, is a great triumph for the Bavarians.

Cattle Disease in England.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—The foot and mouth disease scare is spreading and the price of meat is advancing. The recently organized Metropolitan Cattle and Sheep Trade association is petitioning the board of agriculture to take the most stringent measures to stamp out the disease without injuring the cattle trade of Great Britain. Several dairies supposed to contain infected cattle are in charge of the authorities. The import of cattle from every European country except Norway and Sweden, Spain and Portugal has been prohibited.

Murder, Not Suicide.

PITTSBURG, Feb. 17.—Tuesday morning the dead body of Anton Klatzbach was found at the corner of Bank and Thirty-sixth streets. A bullet hole was found in the right temple, another in the breast just above the heart, and another in his side. A bulldog revolver covered with blood, with three empty chambers, was found by his side. At first it was supposed case of suicide. The coroner's investigation, however, develops indications of a struggle and a murder.

OHIO CLAIMS

Against the General Government—Colonel Telford's Great Work.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 17.—Colonel W. O. Telford, state agent for Ohio war claims, submitted a report of his work to the government Monday morning. From August, 1889, to March, 1890, Colonel Telford collected and paid into the state treasury $302,336.13.

In March, 1890, he turned over to the state the refunded direct tax, recovered from the general government largely through his efforts, which amounted to $1,332,035.93. This made a grand total of $1,634,372.05 paid into the treasury as the result of Colonel Telford's work in the eight years from 1882 to 1890.

A number of claims yet remain to be settled, in many of which new and additional evidence has recently been discovered. Among the claims is one of more than $100,000, for interest, borrowed by the state and expended for the general government in 1861-65.

A similar claim made by the state of New York has been allowed and settled by the government, and it is thought that the precedent thus established will result in the recovery of this sum by the state of Ohio.

CURED BY FAITH.

A Young Lady Recovers From an Illness of Years Standing.

DAYTON, O., Feb. 17.—Religious circles of Dayton are considerably worked up over what is represented to be a wonderful illustration of the faith cure. The subject is Miss Minnie Chapman, who lives at 65 Locust street. When quite young she had a fall that caused concussion of the spine, from which she never fully recovered. The effect of the disease manifested itself in epilepsy—the unfortunate girl having terrible fits at times.

Last Wednesday, while visiting Mrs. Marshall of Monument street, she was taken with a fit, and it required the combined strength of several people to hold her. She was finally removed to her home, and when she returned to consciousness prayed that she might be cured. The following day she surprised her friends and parents by getting out of bed, dressing herself and walking about. The young lady believes that she is cured, and from appearances she is correct in her belief.

AFTER FOURTEEN YEARS.

The Body of a Child Perfectly Preserved and Petrified.

YORK, O., Feb. 17.—Monday afternoon Lewis Davis and Joseph McCracken located a grave almost two miles east of here that had apparently been disturbed. The grave was opened and found to contain the body of a child about five years old, which lay in about a foot of water. The body was taken up and found to be completely petrified. The body was buried fourteen years ago, and when taken up was in a perfect state of preservation. Not a feature or line was changed.

No Occasion for Alarm.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—The department of agriculture continues to be overwhelmed with inquiries and protests in regard to the alleged proposed importation under its auspices of the mongoose, a determined enemy of rats, gophers and other vermin. Secretary Rusk authorizes the statement that no such importation was ever contemplated—the mammalogist of the department declares that such an importation would be highly objectionable, owing to the mongoose's predatory habits, which are by no means confined to the field pests indicated.

Creditors Anxious to See Him.

DALLAS, Feb. 17.—Colonel J. B. Simpson, who has been at the head of a dozen business firms in this city, is missing, and a number of creditors are looking for him. The grand jury, it is reported, has found several indictments against him, and the air is filled with rumors of crooked transactions. It is believed that Simpson is on the ocean on route there to Europe or South America. It is estimated that he got away with at least $300,000 in cash.

Little Child Burned to Death.

BRAZIL, Ind., Feb. 17.—A deplorable accident befell the family of D. Y. Davis, at Coal Bluff, last evening. A little daughter, aged five years, was near the open grate and her clothes caught fire. She ran screaming into the yard, but before assistance could reach her she was horribly burned. She died late in the evening.

Fair Gives $500,000 to Charity.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 17.—An evening paper says ex-Senator James G. Fair made a will bequeathing $500,000 to charity. Two hundred thousand goes to the Catholic orphan asylum, in memory of his late wife, $200,000 to the Protestant orphan asylum, of this city, and $100,000 to the Hebrew orphan asylum.

A Mean Preacher.

CRAWFORDSVILLE, Ind., Feb. 17.—William McDaniel, a log-hauler, left town Saturday night, and indignation against him is high, from the fact that he deserted a wife and six small children without any means of support. He was also a local preacher of some note.

Killed His Stepdaughter.

RED BLUFF, Ark., Feb. 17.—Henry Black yesterday afternoon shot and instantly killed his eighteen-year-old stepdaughter while she was endeavoring to protect her mother from a beating by Black. Black escaped, and is being pursued by a posse.

Killed in a Saloon Row.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 17.—Edward Tenny, colored, employed as a coachman by Dr. Suter, of Georgetown, was stabbed in the heart and almost instantly killed Monday night by Edward Small, also colored. The trouble occurred in a saloon.

Following His Father's Footsteps.

COLUMBUS, O., Feb. 17.—Jim Lane, a son of the treasurer of Pickaway county, who defaulted for a large sum a few years ago and fled to Canada, was in the police court yesterday on the charge of being a common thief.
